Donald Trump; controlled opposition and the Democrat party's best friend

August 11, 2023 Evans

Donald Trump is bought and paid for by at least $300 million

•I submit Trump is controlled opposition who goes along with the charade of the ostensible injustice that's thrown against him. If someone was truly opposed to this legal process, he could have easily revealed the fraudulent tactics of his opposition. Unfortunately, Trump continues to surround himself with a legal team that seems to undermine his every move.

•Trump could have pardoned all the Jan. 6 protestors, but he didn't pardon any as they continue to rot in jail. He could have pardoned all those who supported him during his presidency, but he evidently was instructed not to. He doesn't seem to care about his followers.

even after California had been contemplating bringing legal proceedings against him on sundry charges.

•Once again, soon after Trump left office, and subsequent to the state of New York filing tax fraud and obstruction of justice charges against him, he was able to pull out at least $100 million cash on his NYC real estate from some obscure San Diego domiciled Bank.

•If this were anyone else but Trump, that investor would have had his New York assets frozen, or at least would have been rendered unable to pull cash out. Tax fraud and obstruction of justice are serious and contemptible offenses, yet Trump was able to pull out that money on assets that were domiciled in New York City.

•Where the alt-media see Donald Trump as a martyr and the recipient of a rigged justice system, I see a piece of garbage man and controlled opposition who does what he's told.

•Donald Trump's debt was purchased out of insolvency and bankruptcy on a number of occasions over the decades and he is now a person the synagogue of Satan can count on, regardless of circumstances. Donald Trump is a little oso, a silly dancing bear.

•Instead of being portrayed as ignorant by the alt-media, Donald Trump placed around him duplicitous Judas goats who undermined his every path. Donald Trump has no one to blame but himself for his cabinet and insider pics. Even his legal team seems to sabotage his every move, which just prolongs his legal "woes" well into 2024 and beyond.

•Mr. "Warp Speed" is still front and center and on the front pages of all the newspapers. Trump is still out there pumping up the mRNA injections as his creation. He's still there undermining the Republican party's chances as it destroys its golden opportunity to retake the presidency in the 2024 presidential election. With a friend like Trump, you don't need any enemies, because he'll be your wor one.

•There is no way that I can take any Trump supporter seriously anymore, and this includes Joel Skousen. Trump isn't a naive and a sloppy student of politics, he carries out his instructions by our enemy to the letter.

And Mark my words, it's all about the money; follow the money and you will find the truth on how this world operates.

Ezekiel 12:2

If we simply judge by the fruit as the Master instructs us to do – many of these puppets, and harlot churches would lose power and funding.

But people are hard-headed. A stubborn lot. When we have bad leaders that have clearly broken the covenant with the God of Abraham, Issac, and Jacob; and committed adultery against him – then it's best we don't get sucked into worshipping these bad leaders; even if the other side is portrayed as worst:

1 Kings 19:18
Yet I have left Me seven thousand in Israel, all the knees which have not bowed unto Baal, and every mouth which hath not kissed him."

Your thoughts are the only thing that makes any sense about Trump. I came to a similar conclusion as Jan 6th was unfolding.

My thoughts simply state that Trump was selected (not elected) for a job and that was to consolidate the political base that is hyper critical of the leftists. Your quintessential Confederate flag redneck who despises anything Democrat or liberal got their savior. But what became clear to me, was Trump, the pied piper, for four years was loading his fan base onto an ocean liner only to have it deliberately hit an iceberg. The right wing became even more of a laughing stock as the press had a field day with Jan 6th. The goofy horn wearing shaman was in every story. The visual associated of anyone wearing a Trump hat or shirt was subconsciously aligned with the shaman of questionable mental stability.

I consider myself conservative and have a lot in common with the mid America folks on tradition, not supporting the LGBT lifestyle, etc… But I have to bite my tongue because too many of these people have no independent thoughts. They just waive flags and praise Trump or the Republican in office. The Dems on the other hand hold their noses high pontificating they are the thinking party. The highly educated are here to save humanity from the primates of the Midwest. The strategy is absolut brilliant. Keep the majority distracted with the clown show while Reps and Dems
